

Executive Summary

The Role of Partnerships in Sustainability Planning and Implementation

March 31, 2020

Moderator(s): Gregory Scheib, Michael Laidlaw (HIP)

Speaker(s): Tracy Johnson \(TTJ Group\), Mason Bishop, Greg Goloborodko

A Subject Matter Expert (SME) in the field of sustainability and community partnerships presented strategies and tips to determine future roles and responsibilities for partners that will help sustain your program after grant funding ends. Grantees also heard from their peers about their process for building and beginning to implement their sustainability plan.

Mr. Tracey Johnson, Founder & Managing Partner of TTJ Group, LLC, lead this discussion on partnerships and their importance in sustaining America's Promise programs.

Mason Bishop, Consortium Director, West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission and Greg Goloborodko, Sr. Project Manager, Worksystems, Inc., shared how their programs are preparing for sustainability by working with partners and developing a plan now.

Run of Show

Introduction
Webinar Objectives	3:29
Presenter Introductions	9:41
Intentional Sustainability	11:58
Adaptability and Flexibility	18:01
Organizational Capacity	21:10
Clarifying New or Revised Partnership Roles	29:50
Determining Champions	36:24
West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission	38:55
Worksystems, Inc.	45:56
Wrap-up and Reminders	52:14